

23, CROSVENOR SQUARE, W.

2nd Nov. 1905.

Dear Miss Kathleen Parlow,

The six tickets
you were good enough to send me yesterday were received in the afternoon, and I was glad with two friends to go to your Concert in the evening.

It was a pleasure to us to find such a well-filled Hall, and that you had such a favourable, indeed enthusiastic, reception.
On this I congratulate you, and sincerely trust that it is only an earnest of the success you will have in your profession, which I trust may go on increasing as you advance in years.

With this I have pleasure in handing you my cheque No. X33/43 of even date, on the Bank of Montreal, London, to your order, for Five Pounds (£5), as a consideration for the tickets you so kindly sent me.

Believe me,

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. Macdonald". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Miss Kathleen Parlow,

60, Russell Square,

W.C.